

THE WAREHOUSE GROUP

SIR STEPHEN TINDALL
FOUNDER OF THE WAREHOUSE GROUP

The Warehouse Group (TWG) is a New Zealand success story, founded by Sir Stephen Tindall and evolved from a single The Warehouse store to become one of the largest retailing groups in New Zealand with $3 billion in sales, employing over 11,000 team members.

TWG is known for being Here for Good - it's who we are and what keeps us focused to succeed.

It represents our commitment to better living for all New Zealanders, through sustainable retail products and practices and the mission of contributing to the long-lasting health of our planet.

TWG are proud to be an Alliance member by ensuring convenient access to affordable digital tools, a wide range of general office solutions and are committed to supporting NZ communities and businesses flourish.

Contribution in the Digital Space:

- A member of the AoG IT & Tech panel
- A member of the NZDF syndication panel
- Supporting Manaiakalani Education Trust to enable students and their whānau to access their learning anywhere, anytime and at any place
- Supporting schools with their digital strategy that will help them define WHY, WHAT and HOW
- Partnering with seven national charities focusing on healthy homes, mental health, education, growing communities and family violence

#HereForGood